

H. B. 442

CHAPTER 9

AN ACT TO RELIEVE E. H. MURRAY, FORMER CLERK OF THE SUPERIOR COURT, ALAMANCE COUNTY, FROM PAYMENT OF FUNDS STOLEN BY THE COURTHOUSE JANITOR.

Whereas, Joe Glover, former courthouse janitor, of Alamance County, North Carolina, stole from the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court, county funds in the sum of nine hundred forty-six dollars and sixty-three cents ($946.63) for which offense the said Joe Glover has been sentenced by the Superior Court of Alamance County; and

Whereas, the then incumbent Board of County Commissioners for said county and State did on Monday, December fifth, one thousand nine hundred thirty-eight, pass a resolution expressing doubt of the authority of the said Board of Commissioners to relieve the said E. H. Murray, Clerk of the Superior Court, from the payment of the said sum of nine hundred forty-six dollars and sixty-three cents ($946.63), stolen by the said janitor, Joe Glover, but recommended to the incoming board that it relieve the said E. H. Murray from the payment of the said sum, if and when authority was obtained; and

Whereas, the now incumbent Board of County Commissioners has required the said E. H. Murray to obtain an Act of the legislature, authorizing and empowering them to release the said E. H. Murray from payment of the said sum, before acting favorable on the resolution passed by the former Board of County Commissioners; Now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. The Board of County Commissioners of Alamance County, North Carolina, is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to fully and completely relieve, release and discharge the said E. H. Murray, former Clerk of the Superior Court of Alamance County from payment of the sum of nine hundred forty-six dollars and sixty-three cents ($946.63), representing money stolen from the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court by Joe Glover.

SEC. 2. All laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed.
